The Woodlan Future Farmers of America chapter has been quite active the past year. There are 103 members in the chapter making it one of the largest in the state. The Crops Judging team placed first in the District contest, and high individual in the contest was Rex Wilson. The Poultry team also placed first in the District contest, Terry Hirsch being high individual in the District. Dan Coomer, Tim Kammeyer and Charles Dix placed first in the Talent Contest at the District, and will now compete at the Indiana State Fair. In the Entomology contest Ken Kneubuhler placed third in the District, and Garry Schaaf placed fifth. Dan Kneubuhler placed fifth in District Livestock Judging, and he will compete in the State contest held during the State Fair. With the help of two fine advisors, Mr. Fraser and Mr. Henschen, the chapter has remained as one of the best in the state.

This group of fifty girls has presented music representing several periods of history. The Glee Club performed at the winter concert, the school talent show, and the spring concert. They also earned an excellent rating at the Northern Indiana School Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Association's contest.

During the first half of the year, the choir was under the direction of Mr. Theodore Taylor. A change was made the next semester when Mr. Carl Nicholas of the New Haven area came to Woodlan and took over the choir. Mr. Nicholas has proven himself to be a dedicated man and well-qualified to maintain the highest standards in today's vocal music.

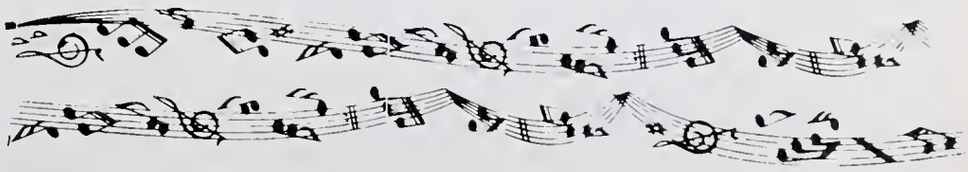
The Woodlan Mixed Choir is a group of sixty-four students who have sung literature that represents most of the periods of music history. They performed at the winter concert, spring concert, the school talent show, and the Northern Indiana School Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Association contest. The group earned an "Excellent" rating at this contest.

Their final activity will be providing music for the Baccalaureate services.



"Hawaiian Paradise"

The '67 Junior Senior Prom was held at Lighted Acres on April 29 with music by Woodie Neff and his orchestra. Monte Gerig was the Master of Ceremonies. A delicious meal was served and was followed by the reading of the Senior Wills. The King, Queen, and Attendants were then announced. They were as follows: King, Monte Gerig; Queen, Judy Gerig; Attendants, Darleen Delagrange, Alan Korte, Jackie Kennedy, Dennis Knoblauch, Pam Hoeppner, Terry Hirsh, Rita Schmidt, John Ball.

The evening included dinner and dancing.

Some of the decorations were a fountain and punch hut.

Homecoming

The queen of this year's Homecoming was Pam Johnson, a senior girl selected by the student body. The senior attendants were Sandy Smead and Jean Schaaf. The junior attendants were Darlene Delagrange and Judy Gerig. The former queen, Peggy Perkins, crowned our reigning queen, Pam Johnson.

Left to right: Darlene Delagrange, Jean Schaaf, Pam Johnson, Sandy Smead (hidden), Peggy Perkins, Judy Gerig.

Woodlan's third annual homecoming, sponsored by the Student Council, was on the 28th of October this year. The Warriors defeated the Edon Eagles 19-0. Presided over by our queen, Pam Johnson, the cheerleaders, fans, band, and parade cheered our team on to victory. The band wearing the new uniforms, supplied by the work of the band parents, for the first time played.

At halftime the winning floats were announced from the parade held before the game. After the game, a victory dance was held in the gym.

Warriors Launch a Victory

WINNING FLOATS

1st--The Sophomore Class with their "Countdown to Victory" slogan and float placed first.

2nd--The FHA-FFA "Blasting off to Victory" took second prize.

3rd--The Freshmen beat the Seniors by taking third place with their float by "Launching a Warrior."

This parade of floats each year is made possible by the clubs and classes of Woodlan.
